JAY ERB

Join us for a talk about how taverns in colonial times provided the meeting places where sentiment coalesced around separation from English rule and sparked the American Revolutionary War. Jay is a ranger with the Chester County Department of Parks and Recreation. His talk is part of an ongoing effort of public education, including land preservation and sustainability.

UWCHLAN CONSERVATION TRUST FALL MEETING

SUNDAY, October 25th, 2:00 P.M.
1756 Uwchlan Meeting House

Come and hear reports on recent happenings at the meeting house and what is being planned for the future!

Join us to hear Jay Erb's presentation "COLONIAL TAVERNS: Where a Revolution Was Brewing"

Light refreshments will be served.

